Here in Oregon, more than half of the working population—roughly one million workers—don't have a retirement savings option at work.² OregonSaves was created by law to meet this urgent need.

What is OregonSaves?

OregonSaves is the state of Oregon's retirement savings program that provides workers with an easy and automatic way to save for retirement at work. Contributions are made through payroll deductions into a Roth IRA (after tax) that follows the saver throughout their career.

All Oregon business owners will be required to register for OregonSaves, including employers with four or fewer employees, if they don't already offer a qualified retirement savings plan. The good news? OregonSaves is an added benefit to offer your employees and comes at no cost to you. OregonSaves is a popular benefit and the simple program administration leaves you free to run your business.
